Sri. V.M. Appadurai Mudaliar who was occupying the Manager's quarters in the Kollegal Silk Filature in July 1943 executed certain extensions to the quarters departmentally at a cost of Rs. 300/- with the approval of Mr. Peychaud who was then in charge of the filature. The construction was carried out in anticipation of sanction. Sanction was subsequently accorded by me and the action of the Manager was also approved. The test audit staff have however pointed out in their audit of the accounts of the filature that sanction of Government is necessary for the extension, as it is considered a capital addition to the residential building.

In the circumstances, I request that

Government may be pleased to issue orders ~~ac~~ting the expenditure of Rs. 300/- incurred on the ~~xx~~ extension of the quarters and also approving my action.
